Annie's Trust (Serenity Inn) Kay D. Rizzo

As Annie and Ned begin their life together, trouble begins brewing right away as the Cranston gang, a pro-slave group, interrupts the festivities. Although Annie and Ned argue over Ned's involvement in the underground railway, as Ned prepares to leave for an extended trip to Kansas, to recruit runaway sympathizers to join them, a pregnant Annie decides she's going too. However, during the trip, they encounter the Cranston gang and in the violence, she miscarries. After a bout with depression, Annie begins to study God's Word, and the gulf between Annie and Ned begins to heal. Annie's nightmares disappear as she learns to trust God.

When they are transporting runaway slaves to Kansas, Ned and Annie encounter the Cranston gang again. But with Annie's faith to guide her, she knows that it is God who will protect and deliver them.
