Espiritual X Carnal (Portuguese Edition) Silvio Dutra

A palavra “carne” (sarx, no grego) é usada no texto do Novo Testamento, tanto para designar o corpo físico natural, no qual não há inerentemente qualquer mal moral, senão o mau uso que se pode fazer do mesmo, e também, a condição da natureza terrena decaída no pecado que se opõe a Deus e à Sua vontade. A revelação bíblica apresenta um contraste entre o que é espiritual e o que é natural e carnal, e não propriamente material, como costumeiramente ocorre ao modo de se pensar em geral. Sendo que o carnal e o natural aqui referidos reportam, respectivamente, o primeiro ao que é pecaminoso, e o segundo ao que é pertencente à vida moral, que não é espiritual, celestial, sobrenatural e divina.
