With the hope that all the lies and secrets are now out in the open, the crew is back to finally put the past behind them and move forward to a happy future with a clean slate for the couples, or will new chain of events cause each to break apart and go their separate ways? Mahogany finally feels that unconditional mother's love that she has so longed for and to top it all off she has the guidance and knowledge from her father. As her relationship with her parents is flourishing, Dion's mother becomes ill. Without hesitate Dion and Mo leave to be closer to her and help in her recovery. Through it all, Mahogany and Dion now have the families that they both have desperately desired and they also have each other's love, and that love grows deeper each day. Demetrius is completely head over heels in love with Carmen. They couldn't have been a better match for one another. Trust issues plagued this couple's relationship in the past, and now they're looking toward the future. As strong as their relationship is going, it's clear that the jealous ones still envy. These two just can't get a break. Good news and bad circumstances put this relationship in turmoil, but only shows that their love is a love worth fighting for. Cayden and Khyree's relationship has been great other than his mama interfering with business that doesn't pertain to her. Trouble occurs when Ky is given information that turns his world upside down. Without looking into the info for himself, Ky points fingers and places blame. Cayden will only take so much from Khyree and she has somehow reached that point. When he sees his happily ever after happy with another, he goes above and beyond to prove that his love is true and is made to last for an eternity. Montez couldn't be happier with the way his life has turned out. Being a father is the best feeling in the world to him. Now having his own parents in his life and seeing how that parental bond is important, he realizes that he would go to extreme measures to keep his own family safe, by any means. Brandi is happy and complete with her life but when someone pops up for revenge, she finds out just how strong of a hold she has on the man that holds her heart. These couples will go through drama and danger fighting to keep their relationships strong and solid. Follow us and see if every couple was able to move on from the lies they were told, and finally be happy with the love they've all created.
