Many of those who looked to Dr. Babcock for help and inspiration have asked that some of his words might be put into permanent form ;this book is the simple outgrowth of that request. The sources from which selection could be made are few. Dr. Babcock ssermons were preached from full, but intricate, notes, which no one else could develop, and he had written no book. Many of the selections have been already printed in the Sunday-S chool Times, The Brown Memorial Monthly, The Christian Endeavor World, and Forward; and grateful acknowledgment is due to these publications. Appreciation and thanks are also due to those who have contributed from notes made at public services many of the most helpful phrases, and to those who have shared personal letters.

(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
