The cleaner's critique was reasonably kind, before the roofer chimed in. 'Richard's a really nice bloke,' he told the class. 'In fact he's too nice.' Greg wrote the words 'Too Nice' next to my name on the white board. Oh the shame. Tasked with bringing an iconic Australian gardening franchise to the United Kingdom, Richard Harrison arrives in the medieval market town of Sevenoaks in Kent not knowing a weed from a wisteria. His subsequent adventures are a hilarious rollercoaster of laughs and tears, from cutting down the wrong tree and solving a seemingly impossible watering puzzle, to the bombshell that ended it all. If you have ever wanted to start a business or you simply enjoy tending to your own garden, you are sure to be entertained by The Export Gardener. A very funny, amusing and light hearted memoir, that is sure to put a smile on your face.
