Memórias da Cidade Submersa: As profecias não eram meros boatos (Portuguese Edition) L Caires

Quando o governo decidiu construir uma grande usina hidrelétrica entre os Estados de Pernambuco e Bahia para atender à demanda cada vez maior de energia, várias cidades foram submersas pelas águas do Rio São Francisco, forçando a saída de milhares de pessoas para outras localidades.

Enquanto acontecia a construção da grande barragem e o trabalho de realocação das famílias, os conflitos entre as pessoas da cidade e o poder público produziram esta estória recheada de amor, sofrimento e mistérios.

Baseado em fatos reais, Memórias da Cidade Submersa envereda por caminhos sinuosos, em que os bons e maus sentimentos são a florados, levando graça ao drama, e produzindo as expressões mais surpreendentes do comportamento humano.

A maioria dos personagens e alguns eventos citados na obra são fictícios, não havendo correspondência exata de datas.
