“Armstrong flung broken sheets of marble like Frisbees as Archer emptied the quiver, making short work of the soldiers who hadn’t already fled. In moments, all the soldiers had been knocked unconscious. Archer and Armstrong hurried to loom over the fallen chairman, who was desperately digging into the satchel. ‘I’ll ... exploit your assets.’

Armstrong laughed. ‘Go ahead, make my century.’”

Everyone’s favorite heroes, Archer and Armstrong are back, taking on a sinister group bent on world domination! This time the pair finds themselves in present day New York, where they are soon captured by the One Percent, a greedy cabal that want to control the world’s resources and assets for their own benefit. The villains force Archer and Armstrong to battle one another. Archer and Armstrong, of course, have a better idea. A 10,000-year-old immortal, not to mention a shameless carouser and libertine, Armstrong is particularly upset by the idea that someone should be destroying the world – again! After all, he still feels guilty about letting it happen the first time.

Bestselling author, Scott Nicholson’s Fortune Favors the Bold is sure to be a favorite of all Archer and Armstrong’s fans.

Praise for Scott Nicholson: “Rarely does a storyteller weave prose with the emotional energy and sheer gusto of Nicholson.” - Horrifind.com
