For the most part, Charlie enjoys his retired life on the beach, driving tourists to their destinations. Yet as darkness falls each night, he finds himself lonely in his big glass house. When Emily climbs into his tourist shuttle, she takes his breath away. Maybe this unassuming woman could change his life. Maybe she could bring the sunshine back.

But both have secrets, and hiding them becomes more complicated by the day. When the truth becomes known, both Charlie and Emily must decide if the other is worthy of love.
