"Antitrust Law Deal Strategies is an authoritative, insider's perspective on best practices for conducting business transactions while minimizing or avoiding potential antitrust issues. Featuring partners from some of the nation's leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through the different phases of a transaction that may have antitrust implications, including determining which laws need to be taken into account for a particular transaction, understanding clients' perspectives on risk, and conducting due diligence and negotiations. These top lawyers give tips on structuring compliance efforts, navigating the government regulatory process, and understanding the potential implications of various types of transactions. Additionally, these leaders reveal in-depth knowledge with regard to the Robinson-Patman Act, as well as specific strategies for approaching the patent licensing process while taking into consideration the challenges of antitrust compliance. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today as these experienced lawyers offer up thoughts around the keys to success within this complex field. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book. Chapters Include: 1. Ilene Knable Gotts, Partner, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz - "'The Stages of M&A Transactions'" 2. John W. Schlicher, Partner, Luce, Forward, Hamilton & Scripps LLP
