Journey into Faith: A Father and Son Devotional Series.

"The thirty most important minutes you might spend with your son all week long."

Do you desire to grow in your own faith? Do you want your son to learn the Biblical character qualities that define a man of God? You are looking at the only weekly devotional we know of specifically written for Fathers and Sons to study together. With each session you will spend time on your own, and also time together as father and son. In the process each of you will follow your own path toward a Biblically inspired definition of what it means to be 'a man after God's own heart', even in...and especially in, this time in history. In the process of building core character qualities into your life, it is never too late for a Father to start, and never too early for a Son to begin; so why not do both...together? Join us for a combination of character quality insights, quotes, scriptures, 'men of God' examples and questions for reflection and discussion together. Prepare for a time of bonding which can last a lifetime, and count for eternity.
