Mentir da gentildonne (Italian Edition) Antonio Romano

Il libro s'incentra sulla figura di Michele Pincherle, professore di mezz'età di letteratura inglese in un'università di provincia (la Consolatio Fides) e traduttore.

Sotto una facciata assolutamente rispettabile, Pincherle cela una personalità altezzosa e contorta, che però deve sempre nascondere per poter continuare a far parte delle organizzazioni religiose e delle conventicole politiche e sociali della sua città, di cui si serve per migliorare la propria carriera accademica.

La vita quotidiana di Pincherle verrà stravolta dall'arrivo di un giovane professore di letteratura americana: questi, più carismatico e alla mano, porterà via molti studenti dal corso di Pincherle e addirittura ne usurperà l'ufficio. Davanti a questo cambiamento la reazione di Pincherle sarà cercare uno stratagemma per disfarsi del suo concorrente e tornare alla propria posizione di superiorità nell'istituto.

Fino al tragico epilogo.
