Mona Hatoum

Mona Hatoum

In Mona Hatoum's breathtaking works, conflict arises from the juxtaposition of opposites—beauty and horror, desire and revulsion. Born in Beirut in 1952 to a Palestinian family, Hatoum is concerned with confrontational themes such as violence, oppression, and voyeurism, often in reference to the human body. Published to accompany a major retrospective, Mona Hatoum features the artist's major works, including well-known pieces such as Corps étranger, 1994, an endoscopic journey through the artist's body; Hot Spot, a large, cage-like globe with world contours outlined in neon; and Present Tense, which deals with the idea of shifting territories. Beautifully designed, with 250 color images, this book will prove a must for all of those interested in contemporary art, especially video art and installation.

Kathryn Hebert:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Mona Hatoum can make you really feel more interested to read.
