Tales of the Himalaya: Adventures of a Naturalist Lawrence W. Swan

This book describes a scientist's explorations, observations and interpretations mixed with adventuresome tales of the author's travels among the highest peaks in the World. Professor Swan tells of his childhood, in Darjeeling, where he was during his formative years and first developed his great love for the forests and wildlife on the Himalaya. His personal account of treks in the Himalaya and Tibet provides an understanding of the Yety or abominable Snowman.
